
Let's Talk:

Workshops for Parents of Teens

Let's Talk Workshops help parents start conversations with their teens on critical topics.

Healthy Relationships & Dating Violence	cancelled	Rescheduled: May 13
Bullying, Violence Prevention & Internet Safety	cancelled	Rescheduled: March 11
Sexual Health	February 11
Smoking, Alcohol & Drugs	February 18	Bad weather date: Feb. 23
Teens & Guns	March 4	Bad weather date: March 25
Body Image & Mass Media	March 16	Bad weather date: March 18
Sexual Orientation	March 22	Bad weather date: March 29
Eating Disorders	April 15	Bad weather date: May 20
Money Management	April 20	Bad weather date: April 22
Consent & Sexual Violence	May 4	N/A

If the Asheville City Schools are closed for bad weather, workshops will be rescheduled on back-up date.

Join us for snacks, information and discussion.

*Workshops are at Randolph Learning Center,
90 Montford Ave., Asheville*

Time: 6-7:30pm ~ For Parents Only.

FREE, Open to all parents, no registration required.

For more information, contact Our VOICE at 252-0562.

Embrace your right and responsibility to be your teen's primary educator.

Otherwise, the world will do it for you.

"Let's Talk" is a collaboration of local organizations: Our VOICE, Western North Carolina AIDS Project, Helpmate, Planned Parenthood, Randolph Learning Center, On Track, Safe & Drug Free Schools at Asheville City Schools, Western Highlands, North Carolinians Against Gun Violence, and Tapestry.