Let's Talk:

Workshops for Parents of Teens

Embrace your right and responsibility to be your teen's primary educator. Otherwise, the world will do it for you.

What: Topics from sexual health to violence prevention, workshops are designed to help parents start conversations with their kids about hard-to-discuss issues.

When and where: Wednesday nights March 23rd-May 11th from 6-7:30 at Randolph Learning Center, 90 Montford Ave., Asheville

Who: Parents or guardians of teens, tweens and curious kids

* A $5 refundable fee will be returned upon completion of 5 classes

- Childcare
- Prizes
- Snacks

Earn community service hours!

Workshop Schedule

Drugs and Alcohol ARP Phoenix	March 23rd
Sexual Health Western NC AIDS Project	March 30th
Healthy Eating Appalachian Sustainable Agriculture Project	April 6th
Healthy Relationships and Dating Violence Helpmate	April 20th
Consent and Sexual Violence OURVoice	April 27th
Bullying Prevention Safe and Drug Free Schools	May 4th
Teens and Guns NC Against Gun Violence	May 11th

Registration is required! Pick up a form at RLC or contact:

Sarah Tennyson: 252-7489 ext. 321 stennyson@wncap.org or Eric Howard 713-7274

Sarah Tennyson
828-252-7489 ext.321
stennyson@wncap.org