Dear Community Partner,

Our VOICE, Buncombe County's rape crisis and prevention center, is excited to host Amber Tamblyn for our 2020 Break the Silence Speaker Series. Her influence as a Hollywood actor, NYT best-selling author, and the co-founder of the Time's Up movement has brought her to the forefront of our national dialogue around sexual assault and supporting survivors.

As an ally in the anti-sexual violence movement and as someone who cares deeply for our community, we invite you to become a sponsor of this event.

This year's event will be held on Thursday, March 12th, 2020 and we hope that you will join us to support this powerful voice in Asheville.

In this packet you will find specifics about the event, information about Amber Tamblyn, and sponsorship opportunities, including an opportunity to be a Champagne Reception Sponsor. Please review the information and contact us with any questions. We will follow up with you soon.

Join us as a sponsor and partner in our mission to end sexual violence and break the silence. With your support, we can turn this moment into a movement in our community and beyond.

Sincerely,

Angelica Reza Wind
Our VOICE Executive Director

AMBER TAMBLYN is an author, actress and director. She is passionate in her fight for women's rights as an unrelenting voice in the Time's Up and #MeToo movements.

Amber has been nominated for an Emmy, Golden Globe and Independent Spirit Award for her work in television and film. She is the author of six books, including the most recent critically acclaimed non-fiction memoir, Era of Ignition: Coming of Age During a Time of Rage and Revolution. In a starred review by Booklist, Era of Ignition is described as, "required reading for the resistance, and nothing short of sensational."

Amber wrote and directed the feature film, "Paint it Black," based on the novel by Janet Fitch which is now on Netflix. She also reviews books of poetry by women for Bust Magazine and is poet in residence at Amy Poehler's Smart Girls.

As an avid proponent of equity, Amber is a founding member of the Time's Up movement. She is a contributing writer for the New York Times and has written several powerful op-eds regarding Time's Up and #MeToo, including "I'm Not Ready for the Redemption of Men," "I'm Done with Not Being Believed," and "Redefining the Red Carpet."

"We are learning that the more we open our mouths, the more we become a choir. And the more we are a choir, the more the tune is forced to change."

– Amber Tamblyn
